Discussion Questions for "New Twists on an Old Standard"

1. Discuss the difference between knowing a strategy for finding a product and knowing what product fundamentally means.

2. In the example of 6.EE.A.3, how does the author highlight the shift of coherence in the CCSSM?

3. Discuss some examples of fractions that are more useful mathematically when not in "lowest terms."